En Route to Dawson, But Never Reached the Springs.

Esquire Henry A. Armistead, of near Indian Mound, Tenn., died Tuesday evening at the home of his brother, Dr. J. R. Armistead, in this city, of kidney trouble. He had been in bad health for six months and decided to try the Dawson Springs water. While en route to that place about two weeks ago he was taken much worse and stopped over here with his brother, thinking that he would complete the trip in a few days, but he gradually grew worse and death resulted. He had been a justice of the peace for a long time and was a very prominent and influential citizen. He was 60 years old and leaves four children, two of whom were with him when the summons came. The body was taken to Tennessee Wednesday morning and the interment took place near Indian Mound.

NOT AT LAFAYETTE

Was the Recent Southall-Clardy Tragedy.

Lafayette, Ky., August 2.—The tragedy reported in the KENTUCKIAN of Aug. 1st, as having occurred at Lafayette is altogether a mistake so far as the location goes. It occurred in Montgomery county, Tennessee, near Jordan Spring, about 10 or 12 miles from Lafayette.

The particulars, as we have gathered them, are about as reported. Lafayette has enough tragedies of her own to bear, without bearing others laid at her door.

In the game of ball here Wednesday between the Louisville Reserves and the local team the visiting nine was victorious, the score being 16 to 0. The local team put in their best battery for yesterday's game and the result was expected to be different, but we went to press before the score was announced. Good crowds witnessed the games. In the last inning of Wednesday's contest Jeff. Morris, catcher for the locals, had two his of fingers on his right hand broken. His injury, while quite painful, will not prove serious, it is hoped. Allensville will not be here until next week. Paducah may play here Friday.

PHILIPPINE LETTER.

Lannes Huggins Writes Entertainingly From Iloilo.

A Hopkinsville Boy's Soldier Experience In the Asiatic Colony.

Iloilo, Panay Island, May 17, '99. EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:—

Everything has not been so quiet here for the last few days. They searched the town and all the lighters in the river looking for arms last Saturday but did not find any. We expected an attack last Sunday night or Monday, and we were looking for a street fight. All of the boys on detached duty were ordered to report to their companies at once at the sound of call "To arms."

I am on detached duty as inspector of customs and was on the "Zuvenia." We worked until noon Sunday so as to finish loading her. She left here at 7:30 p. m. Sunday so I went down to the office and cleaned up my gun to get ready for action and I had nothing to do until eight o'clock Monday morning. I went out to the Co., so that if I had any trouble I would be there, but it was as quiet as ever.

A few shots were fired on the line of the 18th Regulars but not one on our lines. Although everything seems quiet now we would not be surprised to have a scrap at any time. The gunboats Princeton, Yorktown and Bennington are here and were cleared for action Sunday night.

It rains here three or four times during the day and nearly all night. I call this the rainy season but the people here say it doesn't set in before the middle of next month. The boys are having a tough time out on the lines now, although they go on guard only every fourth day and they have a tent at each outpost, but it rains so much and the mosquitoes are about to devour them.

My company is not faring so well now, they have eaten all the chickens they could find and they did not have any fresh beef for three weeks until yesterday. The "Indiana" came down from Manila with a lot of beef. They intend to begin killing beef here, a boat load of cattle came up from Cebu last Sunday.

I have been in the office all this week; no ships have come in. I went out to the company last night and had a nice time. We had several chicken fights and after that was over we went to a house near our quarters where they had a piano and had a "stag" dance and stayed there until taps.

Six or eight boys in our regiment received discharges in yesterday's mail. They will go to Manila tomorrow and will sail for Frisco on the first transport.

Pay-day is the most interesting thing with us now. We have not been paid for March and April yet but are looking for the paymaster on every boat that comes from Manila.

June 1st, '99.—Still quiet but insurgents are giving trouble on Negros. They intend to lay a cable to Negros. The boat went to Negros to begin work Saturday. Four men were ambushed, two were killed and two taken as prisoners. A captain and two privates of the signal corps were ambushed the same day. The boat came back and notified Gen. Smith. He sent company M. of the 18th thud. There are eight companies of the "Gallant 1st California" (as the Frisco papers say) stationed there, but they could not do what was wanted. The captain's body was found cut to pieces in a river.

I am now on a British steamer, Ayr, she is taking sugar and will go to Delaware breakwater. She is a large ship and will carry 44,000 tons. The rainy season has set in. Some days it rains two feet and a half. The outposts have to swim to the barracks. Our battalion has moved to Jarotescap high waters. Jarot is three miles from Iloilo and no one is there but soldiers. The transports "Warren" and "Morgan City" brought 370 recruits for the 18th regiment Monday. They expect 400 more in a few days.

Everyone thinks that the volunteers who enlisted for the Spanish-American war will soon be mustered out.

I can't see why they don't send more troops here and let us do whatever we are going to do. It seems that they have troops for Cebu and Negros but none for Iloilo.

I wish that you could have seen the "rukies" that came here for the 18th regulars. They are already sick of the Philippines. I went up to Company "D," of the 18th, for supper and the "rukies" lined up together: they had salmon and beans for supper. All of us talked like we had not had any salmon for a long time (really the company has almost lived on canned beef, beans and salmon for two months), and when the cooks began to give out supper and of course the "rukies" got their first. We old boys spoke two or three at a time and told the cooks not to give the "rukies" so much for we wanted a little and we wanted to know if there would be any second detail on beans. The "rukies" looked as if to say, "If I ever get home you will never get me in the army again." After supper one of the old boys said, "Well, after you boys have served two years they will raise your wages one dollar a month." Just then two of the "rukies" said, "Uncle Sam will never raise my wages but once."

L. H. HUGGINS, Private Co. "K" 1st Tenn. Vol. ALLEGREE RECOVERING.

Miss Goodwin's Pistol Shot Will Not Result Fatally.

Byron Allegree, the young man who was shot through the breast by Miss Fannie Goodwin at Fairview last Saturday, continues to improve and will recover. He is able to sit up and will soon be well enough to attend the trial of the young lady.

Miss Goodwin is not as stated a niece of Capt. W. S. Goodwin, of this city. Mr. W. A. P. Pool is her nearest relative living in Hopkinsville. The report that Mr. N. Wade was an eye-witness to the affair, standing in his store door, was incorrect. Mr. Wade was in the back end of the store when the trouble came up and did not know who shot until he heard the report and rushed to the front door to investigate.

The date for Miss Goodwin's examining trial has not been set. The opinion prevails that the case will be dismissed.

CASE COMPROMISED.

Ten Thousand Dollar Judgment Against I. C. Settled.

In the case of the administratrix of Thos. Robertson, died, against the Illinois Central Railroad Company the suit has been compromised at $2,100. Young Robertson, an employe of the road, was killed by the cars in the yards here in November last and his mother brought suit for 25,000 damages. The case was tried in March and a judgment was rendered against the railroad company for $10,000. An appeal followed and the case has since been in the hands of the higher court.

He was 50 years old and leaves a wife and three children. The body was interred in the Adams burying ground, three miles south of the city, yesterday.

THE FIRST TYPEWRITER.

Hidden Away in a Dark Corner of the Patent Office.

Hidden away in a dark corner of the model room in the patent office at Washington, with the dust of years giving its brown surface a coat of gray, is an apparently worthless block of wood cut in the shape of a stair-case, with small blocks of wood mounted on wires on each side of the stairs.

When I happened to see this object while looking through the 400,000 models the other day I thought it must be some sort of child's plaything. On closer examination my curiosity was aroused, so that I induced one of the busy attendants to look up the matter for me. It was discovered to be the first "typewriter" ever made in the United States—perhaps in the world.

If placed by the side of one of our 1899 model typewriters, the first typewriter could not fail to provoke a smile from the spectator. Instead of dainty black and nickel letter keys, with an open framework showing the easy working of the intricate machinery of the inside, as is usual in the typewriters of to-day, this first typewriter consists of a closed wooden box with blocks of wood half an inch square for its letter keys. The paper carriage of the first typewriter is also of wood, and instead of the operator turning the paper carriage by a mere touch of an extension rod, as is done with all typewriters now in use, when one line was finished on the first typewriter the operator had to use both hands to turn the paper carriage—one hand to catch from the cogwheel, and the other hand to push the paper ground as far as desired.

However, much as the first typewriter differs from its grandchildren, close examination shows that it has all the essentials of typewriters as we know them to-day. The inventor of the typewriter was R. T. P. Allen, of Farmdale, Ky., who secured his patent in 1876. There were other so-called typewriters invented before this date, but the Allen invention is the first machine that bore fruit, and it is that machine which may be looked upon as the parent of the 5,000,000 or more typewriters in use in the United States to-day.—Cleveland Leader.

THE CHEERFUL CHIGGER.

Peculiar Disease the Puny Authorities Are Fighting.

The government of Bombay has lately published a resolution approving of measures to be taken for the prevention of the introduction from British East Africa by returning troops, coolies and others of the disease known as chigger. As appendices to the resolution are two reports on the disease, one from the surgeon general of Bombay, the other from Surgeon Captain Kilkelly, lately in charge of the Indian troops in East Africa. The disease is produced by a parasite called chigger and is known to science as Pulex penetrans. It usually attacks the feet, the female burrowing under the skin, where it gradually enlarges to the size of a pea. In the earlier stages detection is almost impossible, the very minute black spot denoting the presence of the insect being easily overlooked. Later on, as the enlargement, due to the development of numerous eggs, increases, a slight itching or pain is felt, and the skin is seen to be discolored. When fully developed, the sac containing the eggs ruptures, the eggs escape and develop into the mature insect. The sac can be wholly removed, but the operation is difficult and delicate one. When the sac is ruptured a very serious inflammation, proceeding to a disease of the bone, is sometimes set up.

Dr. Kilkelly saw three cases of this among British officers in the protectorate, and in one case a toe had to be removed. The chigger seems to have been introduced to West Africa in the course of trade from the West Indies. It crossed the continent through the Congo State and Uganda, and in March, 1898, appeared at Mombasa, attacking many of the Indian coolies, and the danger of the time-expired men bringing the disease of India is therefore very great. "It appears probable," says Dr. Kilkelly, "that if untreated cases be allowed to land in India, the eggs on being expelled will find themselves under conditions not very dissimilar to those in Africa, and will rapidly develop and multiply." The surgeon general mentions that many cases were found among men returning to Bombay from the protectorate, and proposes careful inspection and treatment in Africa, on the return voyage, and also advises detention for treatment in all cases in which the disease is found. Fourteen to 24 days is said to be the time necessary for complete development after the skin is penetrated. The government approves of these measures. It is stated that the British minister to Brazil in 1846 died through the careless removal of a chigger. The ill-effects of removal of the sac can, it is said, be prevented by the free use of strong antiseptics.—London Times.

Bounty on Snake Heads.

The government of the Tyrol pays a bounty on the heads of poisonous snakes. Last year the number sent in was 811.

Poultry and pigeons are a part of the big show at Lexington August 8 to 12. Classes too numerous to mention are noted in the catalogue and everybody that has a fowl of almost any description will find a class provided for it. It is intended to make this one of the biggest shows ever given in the South in this line and the liberality of the management deserves a big entry list.

What seems foolish and absurd has been reduced to a feat of skill and science. We refer to the high wheel dive at the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, August 8 to 12. It is performed from a tower 42 feet high, the leap being made into a pool but ten feet deep. While hazardous, the diver has made many successful leaps before thousands of wondering audiences. It is thrilling in the extreme.

When Fortune knocks at a man's door she sometimes holds it open and let the flies get in.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but we got no relief. The next day a physician called and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were soon convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boos. Stump town, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by R. C. Italy will send an envoy to Louisiana to investigate the Tallulah affair.

And so our friend Herb Kingsolomon, of Mt. Sterling, touched the button at Lexington, in the absence of Maj. Johnston.

Gen. Hardin passed through Kentucky this week on his way from Virginia to Minnesota. He gave no encouragement to the bolters.

The collapse of the Brown boom, inside of a week, shows that the voters do not propose to fool with side shows after the main tent is opened and the band begins to play.

Soldiers who have been mustered out of the army at Manila and have returned home are beginning to talk and tell the truth about the situation in the Philippines. The natives have no thought of abandoning the struggle. They can carry on a guerrilla warfare for ten years and successfully defy the authority of the Americans until enough soldiers can be sent to the islands to exterminate them in the same way that the Indians were exterminated. The discharged soldiers all concur in the opinion that Gen. Otis is unfit for the place he holds and that a General is the first thing needed if the war is to be fought to a finish.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney in a speech at a bolters' meeting in Louisville is reported as have said that he urged in a speech at Lexington in 1896 that Senator Goebel be placed on the State Central Committee "to recognize the gold faction." Surely Mr. Sweeney cannot have been correctly quoted at Louisville. A thousand men will testify that to such speech was ever made at Lexington. Senator Goebel was placed on the State Executive Committee by the report, and Sweeney moved to put him on both committees for his superb leadership in the Senate, and it was done by a vote almost unanimous, although Harvey Myers was there and spoke his little piece as usual. The Lexington convention was a free silver convention and Senator Goebel early in its proceedings made a free silver speech. There was but one gold man on the committee that reported Senator Goebel's name. In moving to amend the report Mr. Sweeney made one of the strongest Goebel speeches ever made in the State. He praised Goebel to the skies as a true and loyal Democrat and declared that it would be an outrage not to honor and reward him for the gallant fight he had made for Blackburn. No man ever received a more unreserved endorsement than Mr. Sweeney gave the man whose nomination he is now bolting. And this was only three years ago.

THERE'S WORK AHEAD.

Chairman Garrott has called a meeting of the 28 members of the Democratic committee of Christian county, at the city court room next Monday.

This meeting will be one of such importance that no committeeman can afford to stay away. We are on the eve of a contest in which the party is about to pass through, in a lesser degree, the experience of 1896, when the Republican ticket made serious inroads into the Democratic ranks. While the present threatened bolt shows no signs of being sufficiently formidable to endanger the success of the Democratic ticket, which possesses more elements of strength and popularity than any put out for years, it is necessary to give close attention to the organization of the party. There are some vacancies to fill and the committee should invite the resignations of any members who are not willing to work with a will for the success of the ticket. This is no time to fool with soreheads and there should be no drones in the hive. The present Democratic committee is a good one, made up of some of the best material in the party and every man on the committee was considered a loyal Democrat in 1896, and if there are any traitors this year, we should know who they are. If there are any members who expect to desert the party, or even give it a lukewarm support, they should give place to more active men who will work to organize the party as it has never been organized before. Having organized upon a working basis, the next move should be to appoint a campaign committee to begin operations at once.

The committee should also take steps to nominate a candidate for representative. With an honest election in 1898 the fraudulent majorities of recent years were cut down one half. A Democrat can be found in the county who would be acceptable to all Democrats and we believe make a winning race. The State candidates are well distributed and the legislative candidates in every county will aid in bringing out a heavy vote and it is going to be a regular landslide for Democracy. The people are thoroughly tired of Republican misrule in Kentucky and the young men of the State are going to rally to the support of the only ticket that stands for an honest ballot, straight Democracy, Bryan and Blackburn and above all white rule in Kentucky. Let us put out a good and strong man and go into the fight to win. Christian county has always been close with a full vote and a fair count. It was only when the law was disregarded in the appointment of election officers that the abnormal majorities of 1895 and 1896 began to appear. With the election machinery in the hands of officials who will correct these abuses, we may confidently expect a return to the normal condition of political affairs in the county.

It is to be hoped that there will be no necessity for changing the personnel of the committee. The veterans of past campaigns should lead the fights of 1899, 1900 and 1901 and never lay down their arms until Goebel is Governor, Bryan is President and a cleaning out has been had in the county court house. Christian county must be redeemed and Democrats should show the Republicans in 1899 what they may expect in 1901.

Bill Sweeney was spared the painful ordeal of bolting Goebel in the same hall where he eulogized Goebel three years ago. His latest Lexington speech was made in a church.

The Prohibitionists nominated a full State ticket headed by O. T. Wallace for Governor. They denounced the election law and endorsed female suffrage.

Very truly,

Cooking With Gas.

A gas range, if properly used, is cheaper than coal. Why? Because all expense stops when the gas is turned off; because it requires no kindling, no labor in carrying in of coal or carrying out of ashes; because it preserves all the nutritious elements of meats, breads and vegetables; because it is always ready and saves the most valuable of all things—time—and because it saves the wear and tear on human nerves.

The Gas Company will run service pipe to your free of charge, and will sell gas ranges at ACTUAL COST and do all other work connected therewith at lowest rates. Gas for fuel is $1.25 net per one thousand cubic feet, and illuminating gas is the safest of all fuels. The risk of oil fuel is too great to chance it when gas can be obtained. ### MCKENZIE MOSS' FATHER.

Will Follow His Son in Bolting
Goebel's Nomination.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:—
I see in the KENTUCKIAN of Aug. 1st, mention of McKenzie Moss, who presided over the Bowling Green convention, denouncing Goebelin, a Christian county boy and that his relatives here are not proud of the unpleasant notoriety he gained. I want to say that you have the thing wrong. We are all proud of the young man's stand against fraud and police force, and if you will take the trouble to visit his home precinct in this county and then publish what you find there as to Mr. Goebel, you will not only find that his relatives, who are many, are standing by the young man and expect to be with him in the November election, but you will find nearly every man in the precinct endorses his course.

Respectfully,
T. L. Moss,
McKenzie Moss' father.
Bennettstown, Ky.

CHARLIE WHEELER

Will Open The Democratic Campaign Monday.

Next Monday the Democratic campaign in Christian county will be opened by a speech from Hon. Chas. K. Wheeler, who was Capt. Stone's leader in the recent convention. After an absence of 19 years the speaker will return to his old home to speak for the ticket of his party. That his address will be an able and an eloquent one, no one will doubt who knows the gifted orator. That he will have a large crowd is a foregone conclusion.

On the same day the Democratic County Committee will hold a very important session. The committee will be reorganized to the extent of filling vacancies, and removing bolters if any are found, and steps will be taken to nominate a candidate for Representative.

What to Teach Girls—The Whole Thing in a Nutshell.

A girl's education is not complete when she has been taught the branches commonly comprised in the school course. There are many things which the schools omit, but which the girls should be taught if they would excel as women.

Teach them to wash and iron clothes.
Teach them to darn stockings and sew on buttons.
Teach them to make shirts.
Teach them to make their own dresses.
Teach them to make bread and biscuits.
Teach them all the mysteries of the kitchen, dining-room and parlor.
Teach them to wear a calico dress and do it like queens.
Teach them that a round rug is better than to be dull.
Teach them to wear thick, warm shoes, with low heels.
Teach them not to marry a man for his money.
Teach them that a dollar is only 100 cents.
Teach them to foot up store bills correctly.
Teach them to do marketing for the family.
Teach them every day hard, practical common sense.
Teach them self-reliance.
Teach them music.
Teach them to write plainly and well.
Teach them typewriting and stenography.
Teach them the art of household decoration.

Mr. Bush Declines.

MESSRS. JNO. C. DUFFY, W. S. HALE, LUTHER WOLFE, R. H. COFFEY AND OTHERS.
GENTLEMEN:—

In response to your flattering call upon me to become a candidate for the Legislature, permit me to say that I most highly appreciate the compliment and I take this method of returning to you my sincere thanks for this manifestation of your confidence in my ability and fitness to bear the commission of the good people of this great county to the Lower House of the next general assembly of Kentucky. To be the standard bearer of the Democratic party, whose principles and traditions I have loved and cherished from my childhood, in the pending canvass for the Legislature, is an honor to be prized by any man, and especially by a humble citizen as myself, whatever the result of an honorable contest might be. I deeply regret, however, that circumstances are such that I cannot enter the contest, but I pledge my loyal and earnest support of whoever the Democratic party in its wisdom may select to make the race. Honorable gentleman and true tried Democrats are now seeking the nomination, and I trust no mistake will be made in choosing a nominee. I think the conditions are more favorable at present for the election of a Democratic representative than they have been for years, and it is my belief that if the party will close ranks and go to work with vigor and enthusiasm, our nominee, if a good and available man, will win. Christian county is very dear to me. From my earliest boyhood she has been my home, and whatever success in my life I have achieved I owe it all to her matchless people, who are, in my judgment, the noblest and best of earth's manhood and womanhood. And therefore nothing would delight me more than to see the old county delivered from Republican rule and bondage, and placed safely and securely in the Democratic column.

The ensuing fall election is not only an important one to our county, but also to our State. We are confronted not only by foes without but by foes within. The hand of discord is kept busy in the ranks of our party seeking to disrupt and disorganize. This can result in nothing but disaster and defeat of the regular Democratic ticket if anything, which, if accomplished, well nigh insures the permanent control of this State by our ancient enemy, the Republican party. No true Democrat wants such a calamity visited upon this grand old Commonwealth.

And therefore, if there be any disaffected Democrats in old Christian I appeal to you to stop and take four bearings before taking a step you will ever afterwards regret. Don't cast your lot with bolters and disorganizers, but remain on the regular old Democratic ship and help pilot her to a grand and brilliant victory in November.

I am yours very respectfully,
C. H. BUSH.

Hopkinsville, August 3rd, 1899.
The bolters at Lexington called a State convention for August 16. Governor Brown made a lengthy speech accepting the leadership of the bolt. Several hundred bolters were present who were given free transportation. Christian county was represented by M. D. Brown and G. W. Southall.

Railway Employes' Hearing.

Of late years much attention has been paid to the subject of color blindness among railway employes, but acuteness of hearing has not been equally well observed. The New York Medical Journal quotes Dr. Stein, who has examined 44 firemen and 38 engine drivers, and finds only three out of the whole number to possess perfectly normal hearing power. He finds, however, by frequent examinations of locomotives that these employes hear sound signals under favorable circumstances, except those of the whistle. Nevertheless, he thinks that there should be an established or minimum standard of requirements as to hearing. These views are the result of continental experiments, and it would be interesting to know what the figures would be as regards the hearing of railway employes in the United States.

The Ledger Monthly for August has on its cover a picture in colors of a rollicking urchin in a blue bathing suit, up to his waist in gentle surf, with a grin of enjoyment on his face, which radiates the fun of the situation. It is entitled "Ecstacy," suggesting the cool sea and the freedom of a loose bathing suit for the sultry days of August. This number of the Ledger Monthly has a delightful atmosphere of summer recreation.

STILL STRONG.

Is the Hopkinsville Tobacco Market—Offerings Slightly Lighter.

The tobacco market this week is quoted as strong on all grades of both leaf and lugs and there was no material change in prices. Offerings were some lighter, but rejections were small, compared with sales made. Good to fine, leaf ranged from $10 50 to $7, common to medium leaf from $7 to $5 and lugs from $5 to $3. Receipts continue good, but are not so heavy as a few weeks ago and the bulk of the crop has already been delivered.

It may be applied with a broom or a mop and used freely on all wood work of the premises. Since it loses its virtue in proportion to the amount of dirt present, all manure and other dirt should be entirely removed before the application is made. All the manure should be covered with lime.

Other disinfectants may be found available, of which the following are a few: Chloride of lime, five ounces to a gallon of water. This should be applied in the same way. Here is a non-poisonous disinfectant. It is quite corrosive, however, and care should be taken to not let it get into the eyes or let it get on the hands from accidental splashing: Crude carbolic acid, one-half gallon; crude sulphuric acid, one-half gallon. These two substances should be mixed in glass vessels, and the sulphuric acid added slowly to the carbolic acid, during the mixture a large amount of heat will be developed. The disinfecting power of the mixture is heightened by keep-

Chief Godfrey has tried to trace his maternal ancestry, but has failed to find much of much interest. However, he has learned that his grandfather was a white man who was captured by the Swanee Indians near Leado, Ky., about 1830. He was twenty years of age. The boy grew up among the red skins and became one of the most skillful traders of the tribe. He was the interpreter at the treaty of Council Bluffs.

He chose for a wife a woman who was half French, but she belonged to the Miami tribe. To them were born many children and at a ripe age the father died. The boy, Francis Godfrey, was captured when a boy. The mother and her children moved to Fort Wayne to live among her people, and while there one of her daughters, Mary Francis Godfrey, a Miami chief, whose father was a full-blooded Frenchman. Only a few children resulted from this union and one of them was Gabriel Godfrey, the subject of this sketch.

Canning Chickens.

T. B. Terry tells in the Practical Farmer of a poultryman who cans chickens. When the roosters get large enough to suit him, he dresses and cans enough to last about a year for his family use. The roosters are cut up, oiled and then packed in two-quart cans, all air spaces being filled with gravel. Then the cans are closed, just as though you were putting up fruit.

This plan has a number of advantages. In the first place you

A healthy appetite does not always indicate a healthy condition. It is not the quantity of food which is eaten, but the quantity which is assimilated, which determines the actual value of the food consumed.

The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must convert the food into nourishment and into blood, then the food is an injury instead of a benefit. For all disorders of the stomach and its allied organs, Dr. Pierce's Food is the remedy. There is a certain remedy in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which removes clogging obstructions. It cleanses the blood, soothes the nerves, enriches the blood and builds up the body. It is a flesh-forming, muscle making preparation, and is the best blood purifying remedy. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or ingredient of any kind, and is equally free from opium, cocaine and all narcotics.

NEW YORK'S CHINATOWN Gotham's Politicians Say It Must Go.

NEW YORK'S Chinatown must go. Such is the mandate that has gone forth, and the indications are that it will be enforced. Chinatown is an odorous oriental plant set close to the business heart of the city, and influential politicians object to its presence.

It lies scarcely more than one-fourth of a mile from the city hall and is less than the distance from Broadway to the Magnificent. Its area is exceedingly small, being limited to Pell street, about 400 feet long; Doyers street, about one-half this length, and, say, about 600 feet of the length of Mott street. The three streets start from the Bowery, Pell running directly into Mott and Doyers curving around into Pell.

In the district of Greater New York and Jersey City are about 23,000 Chinese, but scarcely one-tenth of these, or about 2,500, live in Chinatown proper. Yet all of these 23,000 are ruled and governed in the most absolute despotism by Choo Fong, known as the "mayor of Chinatown."

This mayor, as were all of his predecessors, was elected, not by the suffrages of his servile subjects, but by a swallows up so much of the hard-earned money of the poor Celestials. The lotteries afford scarcely a chance to win, while fan tan, is worse even for the players.

As Americans understand morals, the latter are exceedingly low among New York's Chinese. Wives are bought, fathers sell their daughters for immoral purposes, and prostitution is deemed as proper as marriage. It is not deemed wrong to take advantage in a bargain, and lying may be a virtue.

Yet this may be said to the credit of the Chinese: They pay promptly all of their financial obligations. A Chinaman may not buy a business except through the mayor, who first assures himself that every debt against the business is paid, and the purchase money is paid into his hands. The business is not known by the name of the buyer, but by a number. Should a Chinaman run away owing money, some member of the highlanders follows after, finds and kills the offender. Thus those who are unwilling to be honest are made so through fear.

Chinatown has a theater which holds nightly and renders plays, a single one of which requires several weeks of select few merchants, bankers and gamblers, and most curiously, not by their votes, but by the capacity of their lungs. They meet and everyone present begins to talk at the top of his lungs in Chinese, each of the candidate of his choice. The noisy conference lasts many hours, and the candidate whose adherents are longest-winded is declared elected.

Strange to say, the authorities of New York city tacitly acknowledge the sway of this elective monarch, while no Chinaman within his realm dares to disobey his mandates. Back of Choo Fong are the "highlanders," a dread and terrible organization which punishes offenders in the most tragic manner, and he who comes under the "mayor's" ban is turned over to their tender mercies. It will scarcely be believed, yet it is positively true, that this body of cutthroats is regularly organized under the laws of the state of New York, under a different name, to be sure, but they are highlanders by the same. Their chief source of revenue is the levying of blackmail upon the numerous body of unfortunate white women who have taken up their abode in Chinatown, and upon fugitives from justice, who seek retreat in the crowded little city within a great city. Voe to the woman or man who refuses to comply with their demands. Charges of a serious nature are preferred and the delinquents, who are tried and given long sentences upon perjured testimony, or they are sent out of the world by a bullet.

The highlanders are a secret organization, yet its members are known to all the Chinamen, and its chief officers are held in as much honor and respect, such are the morals of the Chinese, as the merchants, or the bankers, or the gamblers. They obey implicitly the instructions of the mayor. The latter issues his instructions upon a bulletin board in front of Chinatown's city hall, and representatives of all the 23,000 Chinese dwellers of Greater New York and vicinity are expected to visit Chinatown at least once a week in order to learn the orders of his majesty. Sunday is usually the day selected, and on that day the three narrow streets are literally crowded, while the restaurants and stores and bazars do a thriving trade.

There are two kinds of gambling in Chinatown, lotteries and fan tan. Every Chinaman is a gambler, a game which they regard as honorable as selling shark fin or lending money at interest. The authorities know there are more than a score of places in Chinatown where gambling is carried on, but it is only at long intervals that raids are made by the police. It is impossible to break up the baneful practice which is abominable, but some of the acting is quite clever. Penurious actors are not permitted upon the stage.

Such is a brief glimpse at Chinatown. Its inhabitants learn nothing that is American, but so much of the language as is necessary to trade, and the vices peculiar to this people. They retain all of their own. They attract the vicious, the lawless and the desperate, who adopt all of the manners, customs and ways of the Chinese except the dress. All of the Chinese violence is speedily picked up by these weak and wicked whites and made part of their lives. One steps out of Broadway right into this alien city. There be many who insist that if it be that Chinatown must be and abide in the great city, it should be farther away from the great downtown life. Hence the move to widen Pell street, which would mean the death of present Chinatown.

CITY DIRECTORY.

Now in Press and Will Be Out By September.

Meacham's Directory for 1899, the house numbers in which have been made official by the City Council, is now being pushed rapidly and will be ready for delivery by September 1. Duplicate numbers have been furnished the City Superintendent, and owners of houses can obtain their correct numbers by calling upon Mr. Twyman. No other directory or advertising scheme claiming to be a directory and purporting to give the street numbers will be official, if different numbers from those in the official directory are used. The compilation of the book is a work that is being done with great care and attention to detail and the directory will be as nearly correct as it is possible to make such a work.

It is not too late for business men to secure space in the book, only a part of which has been printed.
